

Select Counsel Closing in on 250 Lawyers in 30 Cities in Anticipation of Launch

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – August 30, 2017 – In building out the Select Counsel network, Founder and President Andrew Dick has been making the rounds. With his sights set on landing a cross-section of the nation’s top boutique lawyers – all with Big Law tenures – as charter members, Dick is introducing the benefits of network membership and the anticipated impact Select Counsel can have on their unique practice areas. Operating in beta mode, the network currently boasts 250 lawyers in 30 major U.S. cities.

With a goal of 300 members by the anticipated Q4 launch, hundreds of lawyers have already embraced the platform and begun leveraging its many resources. A few of the network’s powerhouse members participated in a series of interviews to discuss the many benefits of the Select Counsel network. Dan Johnson of the Dan Johnson Law Group (and a former partner at Morgan Lewis & Bockius), Heather Morgan of Grube Brown & Geldt LLP (and a former Paul Hastings partner) and Andrew Abramowitz of Andrew Abramowitz, PLLC (and a former partner at Greenberg Traurig) praise the network’s capabilities. You can watch highlights from the video here.

Dick plans to visit additional cities in the fall to coincide with the launch and is exploring the potential for international expansion in the future.
